

Right Time

To buy lace flouncings—but at better-than-right prices. By "better-than-right" we mean, lower prices than the season and quality justify. Call and see this odd lot taken from regular stock. Values up to $2.75, now, per yard, 98c.

Undermuslins

Excellent in quality and very pleasing in style, dainty and desirable. We can always interest you in our undermuslin department.

Neckwear

You can always find dainty neck pieces for these hot muggy days. You can't have too many neck fixings in summer. Call and see the line.

Only a few Coats and Suits at a BIG REDUCTION

Shoe Department

There are a few more

Bargains

to be found in our shoe department. They will interest you for they are La France models. See window.

The Homer Fitts Company

New Home Sewing Machines

A splendid lot of dainty

Waists

fashioned from most desirable fabrics—tastily trimmed with embroidery and laces.

Very radical reductions mark this offer. Values $1.50 and $2.00, now, each, 79c.

BARRE DAILY TIMES

SATURDAY, AUGUST 7, 1915.

The Weather

For northern New England, unsettled Sunday.

TALK OF THE TOWN

Auto parties, stop at the Randolph house, Randolph Center, Vt., for your Sunday dinners.

Sacred concert at Benjamin's falls on Sunday afternoon. The Citizens' band will furnish music.

Miss Anna Ryan of Granvilleville left yesterday for Chateaugay, N. Y., where she will visit relatives and friends.

Dance at Dewey park this evening. Carroll's orchestra. Admission, 50c; ladies free. All rights reserved.

Try Bancroft inn, Plainfield, for your Sunday dinners and lunches; also good hall for dancing parties, large or small.

Mr. and Mrs. A. H. Burke and son of Summer street are to go into camp at Queen City park, near Burlington, Monday.

E. L. Scott of Park street is absent on a fishing trip that is to include a camp at Alburg and the St. Bernard club in Canada.

Miss Blanche Russell of Eastern avenue, who has been making a visit with friends at Caspian lake, returned to her home in this city today.

Mr. and Mrs. T. Gall of Burlington were among the Barre visitors yesterday as were H. A. Olgney of St. Albans and James Healey of Springfield.

G. A. Moody of Waterbury arrived in the city this morning. Mr. Moody will act as one of the judges at the horse races over the Ayers street course this afternoon.

W. C. Clifford of Bethel, superintendent of the Woodbury Granite company, and Mrs. Clifford, were guests at Hotel Barre yesterday, while visiting acquaintances in the city.

Members of the Bonaccord football club will meet at Maple avenue on Sunday at 1:45 p. m., for the purpose of attending the funeral of the late William Jopp. Per order president.

A man named Christopher Ross, who said he came to town from Quincy, Mass., on an early morning train, was arrested by Chief Sinclair this forenoon and locked up on an intoxication charge.

Mr. and Mrs. W. S. Hutchinson have returned to their home in St. Albans, after spending several days in Barre. Mr. Hutchinson having interests here in connection with the Central Vermont railroad.

H. A. Rockwood of Academy street left yesterday for Old Orchard, Me., where he will take a short vacation and will later go to Boston to attend a photographers' convention. He will be absent about a week.

G. N. Beiter and son, F. L. Beiter, who are associated in the retail monument business in Massillon, O., arrived in the city yesterday for a stay of several days in the Barre granite belt. Messrs. Beiter are registered at Hotel Barre.

Judge H. W. Scott of the municipal court and Mrs. Scott are planning to leave late in the month on an extended trip to the Pacific coast, in the course of which they will visit the exposition at San Diego and San Francisco.

Miss Ruth Robinson, who has been visiting at the home of Miss Madeline Rogers on Orange street for the past few days, left this noon for Greensboro, where she will join her parents, who are spending the summer at Caspian lake.

Mr. and Mrs. Paul W. Waterman, who are passing the summer in this city and Plainfield, went to-day to Craftsbury, where they are to remain in camp for a few days at Elligo lake as the guests of Mr. and Mrs. Percy Keir.

J. Sullivan of Granvilleville was a visitor in the city to-day on his way to Burlington, where he will visit for a short time with friends. He will also visit in Rutland and while there will attend a meeting of the executive committee of the Foresters.

Charles H. Downing, an employee in the city street department, pleaded guilty to a subsequent intoxication offense before Magistrate H. W. Scott in city court this morning and arranged to pay $15 fine and costs of $3. Downing was arrested last night by Officer Harry Gamble.

P. C. Lawson, who is attached to the U. S. S. Tonopah, is visiting his mother and sister, Mrs. Anna Lawson and Miss Kathryn Lawson, of 97 Washington street, while on a 15 days' furlough. Mr. Lawson formerly lived in the city and is the son of the late Charles A. Lawson, also of this city.

Mrs. James Black, of New York City, who has been visiting at the home of her parents, Mr. and Mrs. John Brown of 15 Russell street, for the past month, left this noon for her home, where she will join Mr. Black. Her two daughters, Ruth and Natalie, will remain at the Brown home until the early part of the winter.

Dennis Baldini, the Pleasant street man who sustained painful injuries when an automobile collided with his team at the corner of Beckley and North Main streets last Sunday night, continues to make but slow progress toward recovery. Mr. Baldini is still confined to his bed, and a fever which developed soon after the accident has made his condition precarious at times during the week.

Horse racing has superseded baseball in Barre to-day and except for a few minor breaks between amateur teams in this vicinity, the national pastime entries will be negligible this afternoon. Eyes of most sport fans, baseball and otherwise, are turned for the time being toward the Ayers street driving park, where the newly organized Granite City Driving club is to stage three fine class races at 2 o'clock. Nearly a score of entries for the 2:35, 2:50 and 3:05 races have been made and there is every indication that the efforts of local horsemen to revive the racing game in Barre are to be crowned with success. Vermont and New Hampshire horses of acknowledged fame are to compete for stakes aggregating $500. The course has been put in fine condition as some of the drivers that have participated in annual informal races this week are ready to testify. Improvements have been made to the grandstand and stalls.

Palmet and Clairvoyant.

Consult "The Little Wonder," of Washington, D. C., celebrated trance medium. Wonderful manifestations of sound and third sight. Induced by 30 states. Half price for one week only. Hours, 10 a. m. to 10 p. m. Room 14, Russell hotel.

A SALON DIALOGUE

By WILLIAM CHANDLER

"What a pity it is," said Betty Chamberlin to me, "that Harry Ashurst is going to throw himself away on that Perkins girl!"

"What's the matter with Ida Perkins?" I asked.

"Oh, nothing," replied Betty. "Only she's not half good enough for Harry."

"Why don't you interrupt the proceedings?"

"How could I do that?"

"Step in between them."

"You flatter! One would think to hear you talk that I could have any man I want for the asking."

"So you could and not half try."

Betty tried hard to conceal the pleasure my appreciation of her powers gave her, but failed.

"There's one man I couldn't—"

"Who?"

"The first letter of his first name is J."

"That's because you never tried."

My first name is James.

"Perhaps I will."

"What would poor Harry do in the meanwhile? He would be swallowed up by Ida Perkins."

"Oh, that affair could wait."

"When are you going to begin on me?"

"You? Oh, you can wait too. Good morning. Come and see me soon. I have things to tell you."

"Very soon. Goodbye!"

This scrap of conversation, which I am free to admit was not concentrated wisdom, occurred at the glove counter of Jones, where I met Miss Chamberlin. The next time I saw her was at Mrs. Winters' salon, so called from the brilliant dialogues that take place there. Betty was tied to Ashurst. He was a graduate of a scientific school and could drown her in a pool of ideas seven feet deep. I was sandwiched between two girls directly behind them. We conversed with one another, but had our ears open for what Ashurst and Betty were saying. One of the girls beside me was Ida Perkins. The only remark that could be considered to refer to the couple in front of us was made by Ida. It was this:

"Why do you bright men get stuck in the honey of stupid girls?"

"Leave out the 'you,' and I will answer the question," I replied.

But she wouldn't, and I confess I would not have been pleased if she had.

Betty made a lodgment with Ashurst at that salon, and this is the way she did it.

"I have heard, Mr. Ashurst," she was saying, "that you are not one of the kind to feel certain of anything and that you never force your opinions on any one."

"Confound those persons who know everything!" grunted Ashurst.

"So say I—that is, I mean persons who don't know as much as other persons who know a great deal, but are not constantly trying to show it off."

This was a trifle mixed, but Ashurst didn't seem to mind it.

"Some of the women here make me laugh," Betty went on. "They think they're quite wise. Don't they tire you, Mr. Ashurst?"

"I don't know; some of them do."

"I heard one of them just now talking about the big European war. She said the allies had the best generals, only they had been short of ammunition."

"Which allies?"

"Why, I suppose she meant—is there more than one ally?"

I saw Ida Perkins and Belle Townsend—Belle was the other side of the sandwich that had me for a middle—look at each other. Fortunately for Betty a lady passed her, bidding her good evening and making a remark about the weather. So Bet was not obliged to go any further into the military problems of the great war. Indeed, it had not been her intention to do so. She had become inadvertently drawn into it by attempting to hold up one of her rivals in an unfavorable light.

"Are you fond of motoring, Mr. Ashurst?" was her next remark. "I don't suppose you are. At least so busy a man as you is not likely to have time to enjoy himself."

Ashurst was the scientific adviser of a gigantic manufacturing corporation. He looked relieved that Betty should have spared him the trouble of answering the question she had asked him. Bet has beautiful eyes and knows that they serve her a better purpose than her tongue, for unfortunately the latter member cannot wag without drawing on her brain.

"The reason why I asked you if you were fond of motoring is that I have a car, and if you could spare me some afternoon about 4 o'clock—"

"I should be very happy," was the reply.

"Don't you think an ice would cool us? These rooms are very warm."

They arose and went elsewhere. Bet had caught sight of Ida in rather too close proximity to suit her.

The next time I saw Betty I congratulated her on her engagement to Ashurst. "Didn't I tell you," I said, "that you could if you tried?"

"What's this I hear about you and Ida Perkins?" she asked, looking at me anxiously.

"Oh, we're engaged too."

I have never since regretted the place I occupied in Betty's good graces. I don't see why. Surely she could not have Ashurst and me too. Perhaps if I had married any but the girl she robbed of another man she might have remained my friend.

A special meeting of the Chas. Gordon, No. 12, will be held Sunday, Aug. 8, at 1:30 p. m. for the purpose of attending the funeral of our late brother, William Jopp. Chas. Gordon was a white glove and badge. For order, George C. Gorman, clerk; Alexander Edwards, secretary.

Sale Commencing Saturday

A LIST OF VALUES THAT REPRESENT COST PRICE AND LESS

LADIES' SILK PARASOLS, values to $3.50.....	$1.50	LOT OF RIBBONS, 25c value, at	19c
PARASOLS, values up to $1.25, at	75c	LISLE GLOVES, Black and Colored, 25c value.....	19c
KIMONOS, $2.25 value, $1.50		50c value	35c
$2.98 value	1.98	LADIES' WAISTS, in small sizes, White and colored.....	25c
SILK MUSLINS, 25c value, at	12 1/2c	SILK WAISTS	50c
COLORED MUSLINS, a 15c value, at	10c	SILK WAISTS, $2.75 and $3.50 value, at	$1.50
BATES GINGHAMS, 12 1/2c value, at	10c	CREPE DE CHINE WAISTS, $3.25 value, at	$2.25
SILK SKIRTS, $1.98 value, at	98c	TOILET PINS, 5c value.....	1c
HAMBURG AND LACES, a 10c value, at	5c	MOURING PINS, 5c value, at	2c. 3 for 5c
HAIRPINS, a 5c value, now at	2 for 5c	HOLDERS, 5c value, asbestos lined, now	2 for 5c
KID GLOVES, in small sizes, values to $1.50, at	98c	CHILDREN'S DRESSES, 98c value, at69c
		HOUSE DRESSES, all sizes, $1.25 value at	$1.00

TEN PER CENT. DISCOUNT on all other lines of merchandise. Be among the first.

Henry W. Knight

Successor to Veale & Knight

SPECIAL REDUCTION

— at the —

BIG BUSY UNION CLOTHING STORE

15 dozen 50c Balbriggan Shirts and Drawers, good solid underwear for summer weather; long sleeve Shirts; nice fitting Drawers.

Going at 39c a garment

Boys' Colored Shirts—A large line, in plain colors and stripes. They were made to sell at 50c. Sizes 12 1/2 to 14. We are

Closing them out at 35c

SEE OUR WINDOW

For the big discount on Oxfords—Rubber Sole Oxfords included

Always a large assortment of Men's Suits here.

Fall samples of Made-to-Measure Suits are here—THE BIG BUSY UNION STORE.

Union Clothing Co.

Depot Square

Barre, Vermont

If you haven't all the business you want, advertise in The Times.

Ford Owners Take Notice

A full line of A P C O SPECIALTIES for Ford Cars received. Also a stock of the famous Garford Hand Signals. Call for catalogue giving full description and prices. State agents for LEE PUNCTURE-PROOF TIRES

C. W. Averill & Co.

TELEPHONE 344

BARRE, VERMONT

MONTPELIER

The Redpath Chautauqua opens its entertainments this afternoon at 2:30 o'clock in the big tent which has been erected on the grounds near the Union school building, with a vocal and instrumental concert by the Weatherwax brothers. To-night a musical prelude will be followed by a lecture by Dr. E. A. Ott of Chicago. The Chautauqua will continue several days next week.

In probate court to-day Donald H. McDonald was appointed administrator of the estate of Allen C. McKenzie, late of Barre. John Mair settled his account as trustee of a fund created by the last will of Elizabeth McKenzie of Barre City.

George K. Putnam of Baldwin street and son, Ned, went to-day to Burlington for a brief visit.

Automobile visitors at the Pavilion hotel yesterday: Mrs. R. L. Hopper, Miss Irene Hopper, R. Judson Hopper and P. B. Matthews and G. Kingdon of Montreal, P. Q.; Warren Carwin and wife of Englewood, N. J.; F. A. Champagne and party of Worcester, Mass.; L. D. Tompkins and wife and C. M. Cook and wife of Bay City, Mich.

Mr. and Mrs. H. M. Farnham of Northfield street left last evening for Chicago, where the former will buy a carload of horses to be shipped here.

Miss Ethel McNeil, a nurse at the Fanny Allen hospital in Winoski, is making a brief visit with her parents on Foster street.

Judge J. E. Weeks returned to-day to his home in Middlebury after being in the city on business connected with the penal board, of which he is a member.

Miss Laura Burbank, clerk of the industrial accident board, went to-day to St. Johnsbury to pass the week end with relatives.

Miss Clara Williams completes her duties in the office of the state purchasing agent next week and will go to Proctor, having secured a position with the Vermont Marble Co.

H. Stowell Lowe, who is passing the summer in Littleton, N. H., is visiting his mother, Mrs. Kate Lowe, for a few days.

An unusually large number of persons thronged State street last evening to the band concert. In the absence of T. R. Merrill, the band was led by Mr. Dufur of Barre.

The benefit dance held by the local branch of the granite cutters' union in the city hall auditorium last evening was well attended and a tidy sum is assured after paying expenses.

The Trouble with Father.

A city woman went to spend her vacation in the country town where she had lived when a girl. One morning, while out for a walk, she met a man who in former days had been a schoolmate, and stopped for a chat:

"Why, Charlie," she said, "your father must be getting well on in years."

"Yes," replied the man, "he's close on to 80."

"And does he enjoy good health?" inquired the woman.

"No," said the man, "he hasn't been right for some time."

"What seems to be the trouble with him?" she asked.

"Well, I dunno," was the answer. "I guess farinin' don't agree with him any more."

A special meeting of Green Mountain lodge will be held this afternoon at 1:30 for the purpose of attending the funeral of our late brother, George R. Philip. Wear white gloves and aprons. Per order of N. G.

TOO LATE TO BE CLASSIFIED

FOR SALE—One pair of bay horses, weight 2,400. Guy C. Howard, South Barre, Vt., tel. 209.

Merry-Go-Round

North Main and North Seminary Streets, Now Running

Children's session 2 to 5 p. m. Bring This Adv. and get 2 Rides for a Nickel

Kodak Films Developed and Printed at The Troup Studio

Amateurs who wish their work done right must bring films direct to the studio. We do no developing for others advertising for this work. Our finishing is superior; you get the benefit. Mail orders promptly done.

The Troup Studio

Barre, Vermont

New Goods To-day

We are showing to-day new Neckwear and new Caps just received.

All the new styles and patterns and the prices are right.

See our window.

The Frank McWhorter Co.